2 Sec. 9. NEW SECTION. 490.1808 Other business corporations
3 — application and effect of division.

4 The existence of a provision in this division shall not of 5 itself create an implication that a contrary or different rule
6 of law is applicable to a corporation that is not a benefit
7 corporation. Unless expressly stated otherwise, this division
8 shall not affect a statute or rule of law that is applicable to 9 a corporation that is not a benefit corporation.

12 496C.5 Corporate name.

14 corporate name of a foreign professional corporation or its 15 name as modified for use in this state, and any fictitious name
16 or trade name adopted by a professional corporation or foreign 17 professional corporation shall contain the words "professional 18 corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C." or "PC", and except 19 for the addition of such words or abbreviation, shall be a name
20 which could lawfully be used by a licensed individual or by a 21 partnership of licensed individuals in the practice in this 22 state of a profession which the corporation is authorized to 23 practice.

24 1A. Notwithstanding subsection 1, the corporate name of a
25 professional corporation that is also a benefit corporation

29 adopt additional requirements as to the corporate names and 30 fictitious or trade names of professional corporations and 31 foreign professional corporations which are authorized to 32 practice a profession which is within the jurisdiction of the 33 regulating board.

EXPLANATION

35 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with

1 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

2 GENERAL. This bill amends the "Iowa Business Corporation
3 Act" codified in Code chapter 490, by allowing a for-profit
4 corporation to either incorporate as or become a benefit 5 corporation with the purpose of operating in a responsible and 6 sustainable manner, that promotes one or more public benefits,
7 and that operates in a manner that considers the best interests
8 of persons materially affected by its conduct (new Code 9 section 490.1801(1)). A public benefit may be of an artistic, 10 charitable, cultural, economic, educational, cultural,
11 literary, religious, social, ecological, or scientific nature
12 (new Code section 490.1801(2)). Both the Code chapter and the 13 bill's amendments creating new division XVIII are based on 14 model legislation prepared by the American bar association.

15 DECLARATION. In order to be regarded as a benefit
16 corporation, the corporation's articles of incorporation
17 (articles) must include a public benefit provision that 18 expressly describes the corporation's public benefit (new Code 19 section 490.1801(3)). Moreover, the corporation's benefit 20 status must be identified in its corporate name (new Code 21 section 490.1802). Consequently, a professional corporation
22 which is also a benefit corporation must also identify itself
23 as a form of benefit corporation (amended Code section 496C.5).
24 In addition, stock issued by the benefit corporation must state 25 its benefit status (new Code section 490.1804), as must any 26 shareholder meeting notice (Code section 490.1806(1)).

27 CHOICE TO FORM AS OR BECOME A BENEFIT ENTITY. A new 28 corporation may choose to form as a benefit corporation at 29 the time of incorporation by filing its articles with the 30 secretary of state, and an existing corporation may choose to 31 become a benefit corporation by amending its filed articles.
32 An existing corporation may also choose to become a benefit
33 corporation by combining through merger or share exchange
34 with a benefit corporation or similar foreign public benefit
35 entity (new Code section 490.1803(1)). In any case, at least

1 90 percent of the existing corporation's outstanding voting
2 and nonvoting shares of each class and series must approve
3 the choice. Dissenting shareholders are entitled to exercise
4 ordinary appraisal rights (amended Code section 490.1302(1)).
5 However, the approval of at least two-thirds (66 2/3 percent)
6 of a benefit corporation's outstanding shares entitled to vote
7 on the question is required to amend or eliminate a public
8 benefit provision from its articles, or to merge with or agree
9 to a share exchange with a nonbenefit entity (new Code section 10 490.1803(2)).

11 MANAGEMENT. When making a decision affecting the business
12 affairs of a benefit corporation, its board of directors
13 must balance three criteria: its public benefit provision, 14 the best interests of persons materially affected by the 15 benefit corporation's conduct, and the traditional factor
16 of its stockholders' pecuniary interests (new Code section 17 490.1805(1)). A director does not have a duty to account for 18 a business decision (new Code section 490.1805(2)), and a 19 director's failure to consider a factor does not constitute 20 an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the 21 shareholders, unless otherwise provided in the corporation's 22 articles (new Code section 490.1805(3)). However, at least 23 5 percent of the corporation's shareholders may institute a
24 derivative suit to enforce compliance with the corporation's 25 public benefit provision, in part by alleging that the 26 directors failed to properly perform their duties (new Code 27 section 490.1807).

28 REPORT. The benefit corporation must prepare and deliver a 29 report to shareholders that addresses how its public benefit
30 provision is being promoted and persons materially affected
31 by the corporation's conduct (new Code section 490.1806(2)).
32 The benefit corporation's directors are responsible for the 33 report's preparation. The corporation's articles may require 34 the involvement by a third party, who may be responsible for 35 certifying how the corporation addressed the public benefit

1 or the best interests of those materially affected by the 2 corporation's conduct. The report is not required to be 3 disclosed to the public, or delivered more frequently than once
4 every two years, unless otherwise specified in the benefit
5 corporation's articles (new Code section 490.1806(3)).

6 APPLICATION. The special designation of a corporation as a
7 benefit corporation does not by itself create an implication
8 that different rules apply to nonbenefit corporations.
9 However, a specific provision governing a benefit corporation
10 also does not affect any other provision that applies to a 11 nonbenefit corporation unless otherwise expressly stated (new 12 Code section 490.1808).
